What will happen next

If you're not happy with our service or think we've let you down, please let us know. We'll then do everything we can to put things right for you.

How to let us know you have a complaint

- Visit our dedicated website www.BritishGasEvolve.co.uk to chat to us online. You don't have to log in to chat to us.

We'll try to sort things out for you as soon as we get your complaint. If we can't, we'll send you an email within five days to let you know we're looking into your issue.

If your case is complex or involves a number of issues, we may need some time to get to the bottom of things. But we'll be sure to keep you up to date, by phone or in writing.

After eight weeks, we'll send you our decision about your complaint or explain why we've yet to reach one.

We aim to resolve your complaint within eight weeks

We hope our final decision helps to resolve things for you. But if you're not happy with it or if it's taken over eight weeks to sort things out, you can refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman. It's a free and independent service, which can help settle disputes between customers and companies that offer financial services, like us.

If you'd like to contact the Financial Ombudsman, please make sure you do so within six months of our final response.
